Presentation

This postgraduate course is aimed at all technicians, professionals, executives, managers and directors who do not have specific training in management and who wish to obtain it. It is also aimed at graduates in other areas who want to increase their employability. It is a response to the growing demands of technical and administrative frameworks, which oblige companies and organisations to base their activities on improving the skills of their employees. At the end of the course, participants should be able to apply their knowledge in line with current best management practice. Taught in E-LEARNING.
